THE LEGISLATURE.

109TH DAY.

THURSDAY, Jan. 12, 1893.

Afternoon Session.

The Assembly re-convened promptly at 1:30 o'clock.

Minister Wilcox stated that the Queen had signed the following bills:

1. Relating to Duties on Legacies.
2. To appropriate money for Expenses of Legislature.
3. To Amend the Immigration Act of 1892.

4. The Electric Franchise.

A motion to adjourn was made and lost.

Consideration of the proposed amendment to Article 59 of the Constitution relative to the property qualification of Nobles was taken up for consideration.

There was but little argument on the matter, the disposition amongst the Hawaiian members indicating a desire to dispose of the business quickly.

Rep. Smith stated that the Judiciary Committee had had the matter under consideration and the bill as presented was not in conformity with their ideas. There was no provision made that a voter should be able to read or write, nor was it requisite even to take the oath of allegiance. He hoped that the amendment would not pass.

Rep. White moved the previous question, which being carried the ayes and nays were called on the passage of the proposed amendment, resulting as follows:

Ayes—Nobles Hopkins, Pua, Cummins, Maile, Hoapili and Kanoa; Reps. Bipikane, Aki, Pua, R. W. Wilcox, Bush, Nawahi, Koahou, Kaunamano, Kamaoaha, Waipulani, Kapahu, Nahinu, White and Kanealii—20.

Noes—Ministers Wilcox, Robinson and Jones; Nobles Walker, Berger, Ena, Kauhane, Marsden, Young, Baldwin, Cornwell, Walbridge, Anderson, Thurston, McBryde and Dreier; Reps. Wilder, Kaui, Edmonds, Kalua, Iosepa, Akina, Smith and A. S. Wilcox—24.

Absent—Minister Brown; Nobles Williams, J. M. Horner, Hind and W. Y. Horner; Reps. Ashford and A. Horner.

A motion to reconsider was lost.

Another motion to adjourn was now made and lost.

Rep. Kapahu (dressed with a gorgeous lei), asked that the rules be suspended so that he might present a resolution.

Rules suspended and the member offered a resolution to the effect "that the Legislature hereby expresses its want of confidence in the present Cabinet." He considered that the Ministers of Interior and of Finance were good men—charitable men—but he was induced to bring this resolution against them.

Rep. S. K. Pua immediately moved the previous question, but again withdrew it.

Rep. Kamaoaha said that there was no doubt that the Cabinet had the confidence of the business men and the community generally; they were men of integrity. The question was, though, would they carry out measures to the Hawaiian heart and those were to advise the Constitutional Convention and passage of the Lottery Bill. There was no doubt that they could obtain money enough to carry on the Government with, but will they support the Queen? The Cabinet had said that they desired closer commercial relations with the United States. There was a threat of danger in that. They may be willing to cede territory. He favored the resolution.

Rep. R. W. Wilcox was in favor of the resolution, because he wanted the principle established which had been before attempted. He knew that the present members of the Cabinet were thought very highly of by the mercantile community, and he had no personal objection outside of the fact that, even if it was his own brother who had been placed there in opposition to the principle, he would vote against him.

Rep. Smith endeavored to show by referring to the actions taken at past caucuses that there had been no breach of any principle in the appointment of the Cabinet.

Rep. Bush endeavored to show cause for the proposition of a breach of principle made up in caucus. He rehearsed the action of ousting four previous Cabinets. He opposed this Cabinet simply on account of the manner in which it was formed and none other. He moved the previous question. Carried.

None of the Ministers evinced any desire to say anything in defence of themselves or opposition to the resolution, so the motion to adopt the resolution was put and carried by the following vote:

Ayes—Nobles Berger, Hopkins, D. W. Pua, Peterson, Cummins, Maile, Hoapili, Cornwell, and Kanoa; Reps. Bipikane, Aki, S. K. Pua, R. W. Wilcox, Bush, Nawahi, Koahou, Kaunamano, Kamaoaha, Kapahu, Nahinu, White, Kanealii, Edmonds, Kalua, and Akina—25.

Noes—Nobles Ena, Kauhane, Marsden, Young, Baldwin, Walbridge, Anderson, Thurston, McBryde, and Dreier; Reps. Wilder, Kaui, Waipulani, Iosepa, Smith, and A. S. Wilcox—16.

Absent—Nobles Williams, J. M. Horner, R. R. Hind, and W. Y. Horner; Reps. Ashford and A. Horner.

A motion to adjourn and a motion to reconsider were both made, and a slight squabble arose about priority. The Ministers—Wilcox, Robinson, Jones and Brown—were in unison in their statement made together: "Never mind the reconsideration; we won't stop anyway, we want to go."

The motion to adjourn was put and carried. The motion to reconsider was lost.

On motion the resolution was ordered engrossed, and that the President present it to the Queen.

At 2:40 the Assembly adjourned.

Or, Parody on Ta-Ra-Ra-Boom-De-Ray.

By Johnson the Shirt Man.

Now there is a man with a great big gall, If you look at him he'll commence to bawl, He had some shirts and wanted them fixed But without the money he could not do it.

He started in and tried his nerve, But the looks of him would not serve. He tried with a lawsuit but without success.

That dirty man will die like the rest, Give me my shirts or in an hour I'll sue, It will cost me nothing but be dear for you, For I have a pull and in jail you'll have no show.

He tried his dirty game but it did not work, He got hit in the neck and a good hard jerk, He feels as sure as a leper case, He is so ashamed to look in your face.

Moral—Do others or they will do you. Johnson the Shirt Maker is at the corner of King and Alakea streets, where he makes all kinds of shirts to order and guarantees a fit. It don't cost any more to have your shirts made to order than you pay for your old store and factory made goods. Now please bear this in mind and give us a call. Satisfaction guaranteed.

JOHNSON,

Cor. King and Alakea Sts.
